

Samathuva Pongal Celebration

Wavoo Wajeeha College hosted a lively Samathuva Pongal celebration on January 12, 2024 at 10 a.m. on the college premises. The event, organized by the College Union Secretary, Dr. Noor Asma, in collaboration with the Student Union Council, aimed to promote unity and celebrate the cultural heritage of the college community. The college entrance was adorned with a colorful Rangoli kolam, displaying a beautiful design with the Pongal symbol. The students also set up a traditional hut and various models of food grains. Additionally, traditional games such as Flying Kite, Sugarcane Peeling, Dumsharate, and Treasure Hunt were organized, providing students with an opportunity to reconnect with their cultural heritage.

The Founder President of the College, AlhajWavoo S. Abdur Rahman, along with College Secretary Haji Wavoo M.M. Mohuthazeem B.A(CS), Asst Secretary Haji Hafiz Wavoo S.A.R. Ahmed IshaqueAlim M.A. (Azhari, Egypt), Management Trustees, College Director Dr. Mercy Henry M.A., Ph.D, College Principal Dr. V. Rama M.SC., M.Phil., Ph.D, Assistant Professors, Supporting Staff, and College Students, all actively participated in the celebration.

The celebration began with the traditional Pongal preparation, organized by the Tamil Department. Dr. Aruna Jyothy, the Head and Assistant Professor of the department, supervised the preparation. The Pongal boiling process symbolizes abundance and prosperity. Sweet Pongal and sugarcane were distributed to all the students, and there were lively dance performances that added vibrancy and enthusiasm to the celebration.

The cultural competitions took place in the afternoon. The first prize was won by students from the Computer Science department, followed by students from the Information Technology department in second place, and students from the Bachelor of Business Administration department in third place. The prizes were awarded by the Assistant Secretary, S.A.R. Ahmed Ishaque, M.A., and the College Director, Dr. Mercy Henry. The Samathuva Pongal celebration was a great success, thanks to the hard work of Dr. Noor Asma, the College Union Secretary, and the Student Union Council
